A Taste of the Caribbean

Hosts: Ernie Castro & Mike Goupill

Saturday, July 21 - 7:00 p.m. – 8 guests - $100 per person

Fraternity House volunteers extraordinaire, Mike and Ernie open their home for the first time for a festive Caribbean-inspired evening. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served on their large deck, where you can enjoy balmy midsummer evening. Then guests will sit down to a lavish dinner, courtesy of the culinary skills of The Caterer, Bill Bond. The menus will have a definite Caribbean flavor, and will center on a luscious crown roast of pork. After partaking of a decadent dessert buffet, you'll gather for coffee, cordials and more conversation.

Succulent and Savory

Hosts: Patrick Anderson & Les Olson

Saturday, July 28 – 6:00 p.m. – 14 Guests - $125 per person

Patrick, our Board President, and his partner Les once again open their home for one of our most popular dinners. Their fascinating garden has been featured in numerous magazines, including Sunset, Tradition Home, and San Diego Home & Garden. The evening will begin with a twilight tour. Then you'll gather in a pavilion and enjoy the sunset over cocktails and appetizers. Great food served under the summer sky, fine wines, and spirited conversation promise to make this a memorable evening.

Tropical Oasis Awaits

Hosts: Dianna & Dennis Cleary

Sunday, August 12 – 1:00 p.m. – 24 Guests - $60 per person

Experience the music, colors and flavors of the Islands at a festive Caribbean-themed barbecue provided by board members Dianna & Dennis at their beautiful home in Oceanside. The house was extensively remodeled in 2003 to create a showplace kitchen, family entertainment area and master suite. When the Clearys purchased it in 2005, they installed a sparkling pool, waterfall and patio areas. With the addition of extensive landscaping, the yard reflects the owners' eclectic style and desire for casual elegance.

A Middle Eastern Feast

Hosts: Carol Brady & Carl Ames

Saturday, August 25 – 6 p.m. – 8 guests - $75 per person

Carl & Carol's lovely home in Vista will be the setting for an evening of exotic delights provided by Guest Chefs Alan Shada & Kris Johnson. The evening will begin with cocktails and appetizers on the expansive back patio. Guests will then gather in the art-filled dining room, known as "the Gallery," for a traditional Lebanese dinner featuring stuffed grape leaves, meat pies kibbeh, hummus, tabouleh, and many other delicacies. After the sumptuous meal view Carl's eagle collection and Carol's unique collection of angels, and many art pieces that Carl & Carol have collected in their travels.

A Little Night Music in the Garden

Friday, August 31 – 5:30 p.m. – 24 guests - $85 per person

Quail Gardens will again open its gates to us for this very special after-hours event. After the public has gone, you will enjoy wine, appetizers and an opportunity for a private twilight stroll through San Diego's horticultural showplace. Then we'll gather in the intimate Walled Garden for an elegant dinner served by Fraternity Houses board members and prepared by San Diego's own "Opera Signing Chef." Elizabeth Podsiadlo is a popular cooking instructor, as well as an accomplished singer/composer. Chef Elizabeth is known for integrating two of life's greatest pleasures, music and food; so in addition to a superb meal, there are musical treats in store.

Mediterranean Delight

Hosts: Joy Johnson, Paulette Schindle & Scott Guiltner
Saturday, September 8 – 6:30 p.m. – 10 guests - $125 per person

"Rancho Solaz," the beautiful hilltop home of Joy, Paulette and Scott in San Marcos is the setting for another evening of gastronomic delights, this time featuring the intense flavors and aromas of the Mediterranean region. Panoramic ocean views to the backdrop for cocktails and appetizers as you watch the sunset. Superb cooking, a variety of fine wines, and the delightful company of your gracious hosts, will combine to make this a memorable evening.

Garden of Culinary Delight

Hosts: Ken Breeding & Tom Laurence
Saturday, September 14 – 6 p.m. – 6 guests - $100 per person

Ken & Tom's hilltop Carlsbad home is the perfect setting to begin your evening with these gracious hosts. Much of the garden was recently resigned, and make for a perfect setting as you enjoy drinks and appetizers on the terrace overlooking the canyon, immaculate lawns, flower-filled borders, splashing water features, and intimate seating nooks. After taking in this feast for the eyes, we gather in the elegant, candlelit dining room to enjoy a superb gourmet meal personally prepared by Ken and Tom.

Essence of the Southwest

Hosts: Dave Kempton & Drew Woodmansee
Saturday, October 6 – 5 p.m. – 16 guests - $85 per person

John Dave and Drew at their beautiful 1920's Spanish-style home in Mission Hills, just up the hill from Old Town. The evening will begin with cocktails and appetizers on a series of elegant tiled terraces, where you will enjoy sunset views of the canyons surrounding their home. Then a special guest chef will prepare a Southwest-themed gourmet meal, in keeping with the architecture and atmosphere of the house. Your culinary experience will be enhanced by live musical accompaniment during dinner, after which you will withdraw to the living room for coffee and a special musical performance.

La Bella Italia

Hosts: George Schleder
Saturday, October 13 – 6:30 p.m. – 18 guests - $80 per person

One of our most popular hosts, George is the Executive Chef of Affaire to Remember Catering. This year he will treat his lucky guests to the flavors and aromas of Italy. Cocktails and antipasto will be served while you enjoy George's extensive collection of art and antiques. Then you'll gather at festively decorated tables for a bountiful Italian feast. The spirit of "abbondanza" will surely be alive and well at this memorable culinary experience!
